

Centres Accepting Private Candidates for GCSEs

This list was last updated in March 2022.

When trying to find a centre to sit GCSE examinations, please contact centres as early as possible. For the Autumn examination series, the last registration is usually at the beginning of the school term in September. For the Summer examination series, the last registration is usually the end of the December term before.

Please be aware that as a private candidate, you are likely to be charged an administration fee as well as the exam entry fee.

Below are listed local, regional, and national centres that accept private candidates for GCSE exams. This list is accurate as of March 2022.
