

POLICY AND SCHOOLS – CLEAPPS

Contact: Vicky Lewendon

Email: vicky.lewendon@wokingham.gov.uk

Overview

CLEAPPS - Consortium of Local Education Authorities to provide Science Services.

Services to support with practical science, technology, art and design in schools and colleges.

Core Provision

Not Applicable

Additional Chargeable Provision

DESCRIPTION	COST PER UNIT
Membership of CLEAPSS (at reduced local authority rate). Academies and Free Schools have the option to join independently, as 'associate members', but this would be at a higher subscription charge (and does not currently include access to RPA services for secondary schools– see below*). <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Subscription to primary science news, or secondary science & technology newsletters, as appropriate.• Access to CLEAPSS helpdesk, website, and online publications, health and safety advice including risk assessments, purchasing guides etc.• Discounts on CLEAPSS courses• Discounts on educational suppliers for practical curriculum	£0.19 per pupil (NB using statutory school age NOR, i.e. 5-11 primary or 11-16 secondary)
*Radiation Protection Service (for Secondary Schools only). Access to a qualified Radiation Protection Advisor (RPA)(appointment of an RPA is a statutory requirement for schools holding radioactive sources for practical teaching of advance level science).	£320 +vat
Support (including on-site visits) of local authority radiation protection officer and liaison with qualified RPA.	Included in above
On-site visits by qualified RPA – if (rarely) required, may be additional charge at RPA's daily rate.	Not included above